Worldwide Communion Sunday

Watchword for the Week – Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus. Philippians 2:5

Welcome to our service of worship for Worldwide Communion Sunday. Each year on the first Sunday in October, Christians around the world proclaim our unity in the Lord Jesus Christ by partaking of Holy Communion. As we worship together and share in this holy meal may God empower us to live out the unity we proclaim:

If you have any encouragement from being united with Christ, if any comfort from His love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any tenderness and compassion, then make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose.
(Philippians 2:1-2, NIV)

If you are visiting with us today we are especially glad you are here. Please take a moment to add your name, address and phone number to the blue Friendship Register as it is passed down the pew. We consider you an honored guest and hope that you will return and worship with us in the weeks to come. If you are looking for a church home, we would love to talk with you about joining the Friedberg church family.

The Moravian Church practices open communion. All who have been baptized and understand the significance of this holy meal are welcome to receive it. The pastors will bring the elements from the communion table and serve the congregation in the pews. All who desire to receive Holy Communion are asked to stand, two rows at a time. To receive the bread, extend your right hand, palm up, and you will be served a small wafer. For the cup, the tray will be extended so that you may take one of the cups. Please wait until all have been served each element so that the entire congregation may partake together.

Attendance at Holy Communion is a very important aspect of your relationship with God and fellow members of the Church. For this reason, we keep record of those who attend our services of Holy Communion. If you plan to receive communion today, please fill out one of the communion attendance cards, located in the pew rack, and place in the offering plate later in the service.

Gluten-free communion wafers. The front row of the section of pews immediately to the right of the pulpit is reserved for those who need to receive gluten-free communion wafers. You may move to that row before worship begins, during the opening hymn or when we exchange the right hand of fellowship at the beginning of the communion liturgy.

The flowers today are given by the Brann Family in thanksgiving for our church here at Friedberg and the blessings God has provided the past 250 years. We pray that Friedberg will listen to His voice and be open to His leading for the next 250 years.

This week in Friedberg's History: A musical program of unique quality and interest was held under the direction of Dr. Thor Johnson in October of 1973. It consisted entirely of music that had been composed by Friedberg pastors and their families. A 22-piece orchestra and a 100-voice choir were featured; 12 modern performances and premiers were included. On October 5, 2019, Friedberg was blessed with handmade communion cups from the Forsyth County Jail Ministry for the continuing support of the ministry. These handmade cups adored the communion table making World Communion Day more personal and transforming. This was a reminder that the Lord hears the needy and does not despise His own people who are prisoners. Psalm 69: 33

The Friedberg Veterans Memorial Flagpole Terrace is a beautiful addition to our church campus standing proudly honoring all men and women that serve our country. We currently have over 190 past and present Friedberg men and women that have or are serving in the US Military represented by engraved bricks in the Terrace patio. We know there are more. We plan to place our annual order for engraved bricks on October 3. There is no charge for the engraved 'Honor' bricks in the Terrace patio, but we need your help in making sure we capture as many former and present Friedberg men and women that have or are serving in the US Military. Deadline is October 2. Please prayerfully consider recognizing our Friedberg brothers and sisters that have proudly served our country. Database forms are available in the office or online at www.friedberg.church.

First Friday Breakfast is October 6th! Joey Yokeley, Yadkin Valley Director – Fellowship of Christian Athletes, is our guest speaker, and what an uplifting story he will share! Join us for fellowship, inspiration, and breakfast!

Sunnyside Ministry will celebrate their 45th anniversary with a Lovefeast at Friedland Moravian Church, Sunday afternoon, October 8, 2023, at 3:00 p.m.

Friedberg's Car, Truck, & Tractor Show is right around the corner (October 14), and we need your help to make our event a success! This year's event will include a silent auction and we are seeking individuals and groups to donate themed baskets for our attendees to bid on! Some ideas for theme baskets include Bird Watcher/Feeder, Arts and Crafts, Games, Car Wash, Christmas, Gardening, Date Night...anything your creative minds can conjure up! We'll need them in hand by Thursday, October 12th. If you are interested in donating a basket or would like to find out more, contact Laura Overcash via email at shagpop@hotmail.com or 336-817-6016.

Friedberg will be hosting a blood drive on Sunday October 15th from 12:30 to 5:00. The blood drive schedule is available at <https://www.redcrossblood.org>. You can call Chuck Stone at (336)978-5537, or call the church office at (336)764-1830 during business hours to schedule an appointment.

The count teams would like to ask for your assistance with the giving envelopes. We would ask that you put your first and last name on the envelope. Please indicate the amount for each fund you are giving to on the envelope. This will make for a more accurate recording of your giving record. Thank you for your help with this. The Count Teams

The October/November Folio is available after the worship service today. You can also have the Folio emailed directly to you through the church's website.

All parents who have a child in Children's Church will be required to physically come down to the AV room on the first floor of the Family Life Center and sign their child out before they are released at the end of worship.

O Lord, our crucified, but now risen and ascended Redeemer, our trust in the merits of Thy blood, shed for the remission of our sins; let that precious blood cleanse us from all iniquity, and let the Holy Spirit sanctify us to Thy service.

Hear us and help us, most gracious Savior.

Grant us, through the communion of Thy Holy Supper, the assurance of our pardon, a greater power of sanctification, a closer union with Thyself, and the joyous expectation of eternal life in the Heavenly Kingdom.

In mercy, hear our prayer.

Thus saith the Lord: I will be merciful to your iniquities, and your sins will I remember no more. Peace be unto you.

(Please Stand If Able)

Boylston (582, N)

Red Hymnal Hymn #199

I hear the words of love,
I gaze upon the blood,
I see the mighty sacrifice,
And I have peace with God.

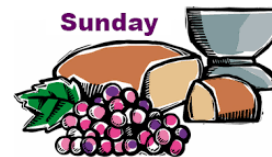

‘Tis everlasting peace,
Sure as Jehovah’s name;
‘Tis stable as His steadfast throne,
Forevermore the same.

The God of peace, Who brought again from the dead the Great Shepherd of the sheep, with the blood of an eternal covenant, even our Lord Jesus, make you perfect in every good thing to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ:

To Whom be the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Your Invitation To Holy Communion

Worldwide
Communion
Sunday

What: Holy Communion, or The Lord’s Supper, is one of the sacraments instituted by Jesus Christ. It is a gift God has given us to communicate and strengthen His grace in our lives. It is the memorial of Christ’s sacrificial death for us on the Cross and the benefits that provides.

For Whom? The Moravian Church practices an “Open Communion” which means all who have made a personal profession of faith in Jesus Christ as your personal Savior and Lord are welcome to receive. If you have been receiving this sacrament in your former church experience, you are welcome to receive it with us too. It is “the Lord’s Table” not ours.

Vestments: Moravian Clergy wear the “Surplice” when officiating in any of the Sacraments. This large, white robe “covers” the person and thereby signifies that the benefits received through the Sacrament come directly from God and are not dependent on the personality of the one serving.

A Personal Prayer Before Holy Communion:

Lord Jesus Christ, our only Mediator with God the Father, my mighty Savior and glorious King, I humbly bow before You and confess my many sins. I, Your disciple, have often in word and deed dishonored the holy name I bear, and have turned aside from that path of holiness and loving service in which You have called me to follow You. Pardon all my forgetfulness of Your great love to me and my coldness of heart; my frequent conformity to the ways of the world; and my failure to labor for the extension of Your Kingdom. Have mercy on me according to Your loving-kindness. Grant me, through Your Holy Supper, the assurance of my pardon, a greater power of sanctification, a closer union with Yourself, and the joyous expectation of eternal life in Your Heavenly Kingdom. It is in Your name that I pray. Amen.

Holy Lord (119, A)

(Red Moravian page 198)

Bread Of Life, Bread of Life
Christ, by Whom alone we live;
Bread that came to us from Heaven,
My poor soul can never thrive
Unless Thou appease it's craving;
Lord, I hunger only after Thee,
Feed Thou me, Feed Thou me.

Lord, hear my voice; let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.

If Thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

But there is forgiveness with Thee, that Thou mayest be feared.

I wait for the Lord, my soul doth wait, and in His word do I hope.

I am the Good Shepherd, saith the Lord; The Good Shepherd layeth down His life for the sheep. My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, and I give unto them eternal life. Thus saith the Shepherd of Israel, I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and bind up that which was broken, and with strengthen that which was sick.

We have gone astray like lost sheep; O Lord, seek Thy servants.

As many as I love, I reprove and chasten; be zealous, therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door and knock: if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come to them and will sup with them, and they with Me.

I am the Bread of Life; whoever cometh to Me shall not hunger, and they that believeth on Me shall never thirst.

Upsala (23, B)

Deeply moved and duly heeding, My Good Shepherd's kindly leading,
Bowed with reverence before Him, I would praise Him and adore Him.

Jesus, heed me, lost and dying, Unto Thee for shelter flying;
All my sin and sorrow feeling, I now come for help and healing.

(The Congregation may be seated)

Beloved, draw nigh to God, and He will draw high to you. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will exalt you. Confess, therefore, your sins one to another, and pray one for another.

We will search our hearts and try our ways and turn again to the Lord.

If anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Righteous; and He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

We, therefore, draw near with boldness unto the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace to help us in time of need.

Jesus, our blessed Redeemer, has said: Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest; they that cometh to Me I will in no wise cast out.

Lachrymae (253,C)

Red Hymnal, page 145

While in penitence we kneel,
Thy sweet presence let us feel,
All Thy wondrous love reveal.

From the bonds of sin release,
Cold and wavering, faith increase,
Lamb of God, grant us Thy peace.

Lord Jesus Christ, our only Mediator with God the Father, our might Savior and our glorious King, we humbly bow before Thee and confess our manifold transgressions.

We, Thy disciples, have oft in word and deed dishonored the holy name we bear, and have turned aside from that path of holiness and loving service, in which Thou has called us to follow Thee.

Pardon all our forgetfulness of Thy great love and our coldness of heart, our frequent conformity to the ways of the world, and our failure to labor for the extension of Thy Kingdom.

Have mercy upon us, according to Thy lovingkindness; hide Thy face from our sins and blot out all our iniquities.

FRIEDBERG WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

CHICKEN PIE

& COUNTRY HAM SUPPER

Friedberg Women's Fellowship is excited to host a Chicken Pie & Country Ham supper on Saturday, November 4th, 2023, and would like to invite all the congregation, family, and friends to attend the event. As Chicken Pie & Country Ham suppers are a long-standing tradition at Friedberg, we ask congregation members, their family, and friends to consider helping support the effort to prepare for this year's Fall Supper. There are many opportunities to contribute to the idea that "many hands make light work principal," including:

Making of the chicken pies occurring:

Thursday, October 5th at 9:00 a.m. in the kitchen for 4-6 hours cooking chicken, making dough, picking chicken. (bring a rolling pin)

Friday, October 6th at 9:00 a.m. in the kitchen rolling dough, assembling pies for 4-6 hours. (bring a rolling pin)

Friday, October 6th at 4:00 p.m. in the kitchen for 4-6 hours cooking chicken, making dough, picking chicken. (bring a rolling pin)

Saturday, October 7th at 10:00 a.m. in the kitchen rolling dough, assembling pies for 4-6 hours. (bring a rolling pin)

Bringing Desserts:

Contributing desserts to the Fall Supper which will all be shared with meals (there is no bazaar during this Fall Supper). Circles, Sunday School classes and family and friends are encouraged to sign up to bring desserts which we will all surely get a chance to enjoy. Desserts can be brought to the church beginning on Friday, November 3rd and need to all be available by noon on Saturday, November 4th. Sign-up sheets will be made available soon in many forms or you are welcome to put your sign-up in the collection plate indicating what you are bringing, and we will compile a master list.

Helping with the Supper Event:

Friday, November 3rd from 9:00 a.m. until we are done there will be many tasks in the kitchen as well as the Family Life Center to set up and prepare food for the event. Come with a smile and we will be happy to give you an apron and have you pitch in to make this supper a success. Saturday, November 4th from 9:00 a.m.

until we are done there will be additional opportunities to prepare food and finalize set up in the facilities and clean up after the event. Coordination of the dining room volunteers has been scrolling in the announcements on the screen in the sanctuary and on our broadcasts and we encourage anyone to reach out to offer their help as instructed to Michelle Tucker Slack. Others may contact Debbie Martin, Rene Kimel or Carolyn Breedlove if they are able to assist. You do not have to be available for the duration of the event to help us out. Come and enjoy the fun and fellowship of a Friedberg Chicken Pie & Country Ham supper in whatever commitment you can make.

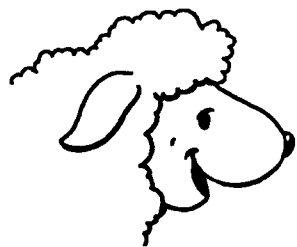

Shut-in Meal Delivery:

In honor of our members and friends who are unable to attend the supper in person, this year we will be packaging up left-over items to share with our Friedberg shut-ins list. We need volunteers who are willing to take the meals to these shut-ins and spend a few minutes in fellowship and prayer with them on Sunday, November 5th, 2023.

Prayers:

Maybe you are not able to physically volunteer or donate a dessert for this year's event. We as a congregation encourage you to pray for our church supper, our guests, our volunteers. Pray that this year's supper will honor God's goodness and bounty he has bestowed upon Friedberg for 250 years. Most of all, pray that in all things related to this event we are doing it for the glory of God and by His will.

Jesus told this parable to the chief priests and elders.

Find the underlined words in the puzzle below.

"There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work today in the vineyard.' 'I will not,' he answered, but later he changed his mind and went. Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing.

He answered, 'I will, sir,' but he did not go."

Jesus asked the chief priests and elders, "Which of the two did what his father wanted?" "The first," they answered.

The parable was about the kingdom of God. The chief priests and elders were like the son who said he would go, but didn't.
