The 23rd Psalm, And Two More Psalms You Should Know

Did you know that the Book of Psalms (the hymn book of ancient Israel) is the largest of the sixty-six books in the Bible? The Book of Psalms contains 150 psalms and King David wrote an amazing one-half of them.

David was a shepherd, musician, prophet, sinner, soldier, and the first divinely appointed king of Israel. He ruled the nation for almost 40 years. All of his psalms are sacred and precious, but one of them — the 23rd Psalm — is probably the most well known and beloved chapter in all of God's Word.

Surrounding the 23rd Psalm are two lesser known, but important psalms which serve to enhance its meaning and significance in a powerful way.

Psalm 22 is sometimes called the "The Psalm of the Cross." It points to the suffering and death of Jesus and in some ways provides a more vivid description of His crucifixion than the New Testament gospels. It opens with the same poignant words Christ would speak while dying on the cross more than a 1000 years later: "My God, my God, why hast Thou forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46). The mocking of the crowds as they pass by in Psalm 22:7 is echoed in the New Testament with these words: "And those who passed by derided Him, wagging their heads ..." (Matthew 27:39ff). The many references in the New Testament connected to this psalm all point to the cross and were fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

King David's 23rd Psalm can be called "The Psalm of the Crook" — the crook being a curved shepherd's staff. This psalm is just six short verses, but is perhaps the most beautiful, profound, and comforting words of truth ever written. It is about a shepherd, but not just any shepherd — this Shepherd is the Lord! And if we, by faith, genuinely know Him as our Lord, then we truly are His sheep and are dependent on Him for all things.

The shepherd carries with him a "rod," a straight and sturdy stick with which to protect the sheep; a "staff," used for walking and support; and/or a "crook," a large stick with a curved end which is used to rescue a sheep that has wandered off and fallen into a crevice or a pit.

Believers who read the 23rd Psalm know that its promises and depth of meaning for the child of God cannot be overstated.

The 24th Psalm can be called "The Psalm of the Crown." It begins with this bold and comforting declaration: "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world and those who dwell therein." The psalm continues to exalt God powerfully, leaving no room for debate or speculation: "Lift up your heads, O gates! And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in. Who is this King of glory? The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle!" (Psalm 24:7-8, ESV).

I hope you will read each of these wonderful psalms. As you do take note of how one builds upon another in a beautiful and harmonious progression. Together they paint a glorious picture of Christ's redemptive work and His love for us in the past, present, and future.

Psalm 22 is "The Psalm of the Cross"

It is an event of the past that continues on today. Jesus, the Holy Son of God, came to pay a debt He did not owe because we owed a debt we could not pay.

Psalm 23 is "The Psalm of the Crook"

Today and everyday, God's goodness and mercy follow us, and His rod and staff promise to bring us comfort, protection, rescue, and correction as needed.

Psalm 24 is "The Psalm of the Crown"

Our sure and certain hope is that Jesus is coming again in power and great glory and will purge all that has been defiled in our world since the fall of humanity in the Garden of Eden long ago.

So, as we continue to move forward in 2024 let us remember that no matter what life brings — whether it be poor health, wayward children, financial challenges, job insecurities, social and political upheaval in our country, or military conflicts overseas — we are more than conquerors through Christ who loves us. In Him, we are on the victorious side and one day will we reign with Him forever. Until that glorious day, for as long as we draw breath, let us live each day in the strength He supplies.

In Christ's love,

Pastor Jim

C.R.O.S.S. KIDS WINTER/SPRING EVENTS FOR FEBRUARY

Sunday, February 4, 11, 18 and 25 from 4:30-6:30pm

Our semester of C.R.O.S.S. Kids continues this month with our focus on "I Am!" We will be looking at all of the things we are and taking them out in to the community to show how everyone can be those same things! Our topics this month will be as follows:

February 4: 4 year olds through 2nd grade outing/3rd-5th grade Game Night

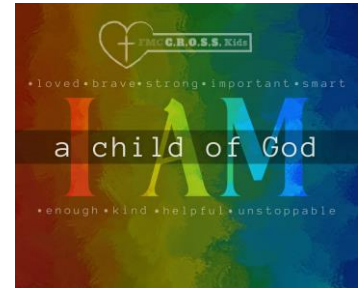

We'll meet beginning at 4:15pm on this night to help with the timing of our outing.

February 11: 3rd-5th grade outing/ 4 year olds through 2nd grade Game Night

February 18: I am Helpful

February 25: I am Smart

We welcome you, your family and friends to our times together as we learn more about the Bible with Bible Trivia games, devotions, praise and worship and dinner each night we gather! Come ready to have fun as we learn more about Jesus and "I Am!"

CHILDREN'S CHURCH

Sunday, February 4, 11, 18 and 25 during the 11:00am service

Children's Church will continue in February by beginning in the Sanctuary for the first little bit of the worship service. If there is a Children's Chat that day we will leave afterwards to go to the Children's Church room. If there is not, then there will be a specific time in which we will leave to go down together. Pick up will be in the Children's Church room by the parents after the service. During our time together we will praise God through music, have a small snack and participate in an activity focused on our verse of the month. This month we are learning about 1 John 3:18, "Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth."

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Every Sunday from 9:45-10:45am in various classrooms on the lower level

We invite you to join us for Sunday School each Sunday morning as children split up into more age specific small groups and dive deeper into our monthly verse and themes. They have loving Sunday School teachers with awesome plans ready to go for them to help each child learn more about what plans God has for each of their lives. Our Little Explorers (2 and 3 year olds) are continuing to learn from the Little Bible Heroes and will be meeting Esther and Daniel this month. The rest of our classes will look at the topic of Love Does and how it connects with the verse from 1 John 3:18. It's a great time to gather together in a smaller group on Sunday mornings!

February's verse to focus on will be:

"Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth."

1 John 3:18

It is great to feel love each and every day isn't it? In order to feel it someone has to show it which means love has to be put into action. This month is all about not just telling about the love that we have for others, it is really all about showing it! Work together with your family and friends to show others how much love you have for others around you...show them LOVE DOES!!!

WEEKEND AWAY IN MARCH AT LAUREL RIDGE

Friday, March 8-Sunday, March 10

Let's get MAD!!!! After all, in March we hear all about March Madness and there is so much competition going on so....we thought we would take some of the madness and competition up the mountain! Our Weekend Away will be called "March Madness" where we will spend time in the word and focused on getting mad about our devotion, sin and bearing fruit! And yes, we will have lots of fun and time for competition! It's going to be fun so get your family and/or child(ren) signed up. The last day to let Mrs Heidi know will be Sunday February 25.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE CHILDREN OF FRIEDBERG...

"I am a Child of God!"

This semester we are focusing on "I Am" and how each of the different I Am's make us a special and unique child of God. We asked the children at C.R.O.S.S. Kids what "I am a Child of God" means to them and here are their responses.

- ❖ Zoey Martin-I think it means that God loves me and I am a child of God.
- ❖ Kaiya McBride-It means I am a Child of God.
- ❖ Eli Beck-To be in the on the Earth.
- ❖ Kallon Horan-We are all children of God.
- ❖ Liam Burchette-It tells me what everyone is!
- ❖ Chase Hurlocker-You're a child of God.
- ❖ Isaiah Craver-I have somebody that loves me all the time.
- ❖ Nelia Hurlocker-Following in God's footsteps.
- ❖ Gabe Smith-We are all God's children.
- ❖ Rory Smith-happy and loved
- ❖ Nora Frank-I am love.
- ❖ Rose Craver-That you can trust what he says.

- ❖ Carol Nell-That I'm a child of God and he loves me and helps me.
- ❖ Benjamin Boles-He loves you.
- ❖ Sammy Boles-To me it means that we accept him as our creator.
- ❖ Lydia Nell-It means he loves me.
- ❖ Elise Romblad-he loves me and is always there if anything happens.

Friedberg Moravian Youth Mission Statement

FM Youth will LOVE one another as Christ loves us, we will LEARN about God, so we can use our gifts and talents for His purpose, and we will SERVE others as an expression of Christ's love, and we will SHARE the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Youth (Salt and Light)

February 4th 4:30 – 6:30

The Youth are studying the Sermon on the Mount. Matthew 5:13-20 describes the essential role Jesus' disciples and followers serve on the earth. We are the salt of the earth and the light of the world. These metaphors represent the impact Christians are meant to have in the world. That's why it matters so much that we do the good works God gives them to do.

High School Retreat

February 9th – 11th

Need a break from demanding routines and stress in your life? All high schoolers are invited to attend a retreat at Laurel Ridge. This is a great opportunity for high school youth to spend some time on the mountain connecting with God and building relationships. The theme is Leadership. This retreat will not only be a place to relax but a place to learn how to lead like Christ. A great leader chooses to follow through, chooses to love, chooses integrity, and follow God's lead.

SuperBowl Sunday

February 11th 6:00 – 8:00 pm

The middle school youth are invited to watch the first half of the game, enjoy Superbowl foods, team games and hang out with friends.

Sweetheart Banquet (Fellowship Hall)

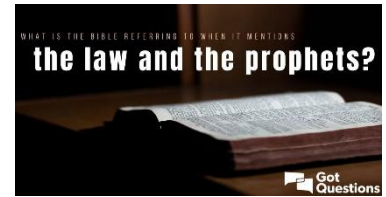

February 18th 12:00 – 2:30

The youth are inviting all Friedberg seniors to join us for lunch. On Feb. 18th, the youth will provide lunch, entertainment, and a game of Bingo. All you need to do is sign up and start building relationships.

Youth (The Law and Prophets)

February 25th 4:30 – 6:30

The youth will continue their study on the Sermon on the Mount. This week we'll learn that Jesus did not come to destroy the law or the prophets but to fulfil them. The Law refers to the first five books of the Old Testament and the Prophets refer to the Books of the Prophets both major and minor. The entire Bible, old and new, points to Christ.

Sunday School (9:45 – 10:45)

Sunday, February 4th, 11th, 18th, 25th

The middle and high school youth will continue their study in the Gospel of John. The Gospel of John focuses on individual believers and their relationships to Jesus. The Gospel of John contains popular verses, such as, John 1:1 "In the beginning was the Word, John 3:16 "For God so loved the world.....", John 15:5 "I am the vine; you are the branches" John 15:13 "Greater love....lay down one's life for one's friends." John 14:6 "I am the way and the truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

Basketball Open Gym

Wednesday's 6:30 – 8:30 pm

Invite your friends to basketball open gym! It's a great time to sharpen your skills, play scrimmage games and hang out with friends. You will also build teamwork, work on fitness, and develop good communication skills. Mark your calendars and join us on Wednesday nights.
