Archives Sunday 2025 is April 27 and the Archives Needs Your Help!

The Moravian Archives is the official repository of and serves as the institutional memory for the Moravian Church in America, Southern Province. It serves the Church, its members, and the public by fostering curiosity and discovery through access, preservation, and education.

Arriving as German-speaking immigrants in 1753 at Bethabara, NC (now part of Winston-Salem), building a faith-center community at the mid-eighteenth-century American frontier, Moravians kept detailed records in order to maintain ties with Church leadership in both Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, and Herrnhut, Germany. In diaries of church and daily life, reports from missionary work with the Cherokees, and life stories of a community of church members, Moravians recorded their living witness to the surrounding world.

The Moravian Archives offers research appointments Monday-Thursday from 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Staff also offer remote research assistance, reprographic services, and transcription and translation services. Many resources can be found on the Archives' website, including links to digital resources, such as the expansive collection of over 14,000 memoirs. Ongoing programming includes monthly lectures given on a variety of topics and monthly themed Vault tours giving a look behind the scenes. The Archives also offers workshops on creative writing, bookbinding, and photography preservation. Information about all this and more can be found on the website, Facebook, and Instagram pages, or via the emailed newsletter.

Here's how you can help!

The Provincial Elders Conference, Southern Province, has designated the last Sunday of April each year as Moravian Archives Sunday. On April 27 this year, the churches of the Southern Province have been asked to provide special emphasis for the Moravian Archives during worship, and to provide information about the Archives in its church bulletins and newsletters.

On this emphasis Sunday, members of our Southern Province churches are asked to support the Archives with their financial contributions and their prayers! If you have not yet made a contribution to this valuable repository of information about our church, we encourage you to do so by this emphasis Sunday. And if you have already made a contribution, please consider additional support! The Archives' $400,000 annual budget is funded primarily by the churches of the Southern Province, as well as the Salem Congregation and contributions of individual donors, including both Moravians and non-Moravians. Continuing economic realities make support from individuals like you even more important.

Gifts to the Archives can be designated for any of the following funds:

- Unrestricted fund
- The Reverend Dr. C. Daniel Crews Friends Fund
- Technology Fund (for necessary software support)
- Book Fund (for collection maintenance)
- Endowment Fund

Online contributions may be made by going to the following:

- Archives site: www.moravianarchives.org/donate
- Moravian Ministries Foundation:
www.mmfa.info/Giving Portal

If you would like to receive a contribution card, please contact the Archives:

National Day of Prayer

May 1, 2025

Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. (Romans 15:13 NASB)

2025 National Prayer

Written by NDP Task Force President, Kathy Branzell

God of hope, fill us with all joy and peace in believing, so that we will abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

You have caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead; therefore, we hope in what we do not see. This world is not our home or reality, but the Lord is our Rock, our Truth, our certainty.

God of hope, we pour out our praise and are filled with Your powerful presence. We pour out repentance of sin and are filled with forgiveness and righteousness. We pour out pain from the attacks of the enemy—anxiousness, fear, anger—and You fill us with courage, assurance, and love. We pour out our needs, the desires of our hearts, and are filled with Your Kingdom provision and purpose.

We pour out our hearts for our nation, for the people and places, relationships and responsibilities the Lord has established: the Church, Family, Education, Business, Military, Government, Media, Arts and Entertainment. May all who live, serve, and steward in these be filled with Your purpose, wisdom, strength, and truth. Let Your lovingkindness, O Lord, be upon us, as we have hoped in You.

In abounding hope, anchored by our hope in the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen!

Please pray for the seven centers of influence in our nation:

Church

God of hope and the Lord of the Church, we ask You to revive Your people. Fill every congregation with joy and peace in believing. May we abound in hope, proclaiming Christ boldly and living faithfully. Heal divisions and strengthen unity. Empower pastors and leaders with courage and compassion. Let the Church rise to be a light in dark places, a refuge for the weary, and a witness to Your truth and love.

Family

Heavenly Father, we ask Your blessing upon families in America. Restore broken relationships, strengthen marriages, and guide parents in raising children in love and truth. Let homes be filled with joy, peace, and forgiveness. May Your Spirit empower every family to abound in hope, even in the face of trials. Rebuild the foundation of our society by restoring hope and holiness in the heart of every home.

Education

Lord, the giver of wisdom, we lift up all who teach, learn, and lead in our schools and universities. Fill them with peace and passion for truth. Protect their hearts from discouragement. May students grow in knowledge and character. Let classrooms be places of discovery and dignity. Empower teachers by Your Spirit to sow seeds of hope in every lesson and life they touch.

Business

God of provision, we pray for business leaders, workers, and entrepreneurs across our land. Fill them with integrity and generosity. May their faith lead them to operate with fairness, serve their communities, and steward resources wisely. Let joy and peace characterize workplaces. May businesses not only succeed economically but flourish in a spirit of hope, collaboration, and service to others.

Military

Lord of peace and protector of the vulnerable, we pray for the men and women who serve in our Armed Forces. Guard their hearts and minds. Let them know Your joy and peace even in the midst of danger and uncertainty. For those deployed, may they abound in hope and be filled with strength by the Holy Spirit. Bless their families with endurance and comfort. May our nation honor their sacrifice with gratitude and care.

Media and the Arts

God of truth and beauty, we pray for those who shape culture through words, images, music, and performance. May they be filled with joy and peace in You, and use their platforms to inspire, inform, and uplift rather than divide or degrade. Let truth prevail over sensationalism, and creativity be guided by grace. May they abound in hope, becoming messengers of redemption, dignity, and light.

Government

God of hope, we lift up our leaders—at local, state, and national levels. Fill them with wisdom rooted in truth and justice. May they govern not for personal gain but for the good of all people. Let joy and peace in believing guide their decisions. Help them abound in hope as they seek solutions that are just, merciful, and in line with Your will. Empower them by Your Spirit to lead with integrity, humility, and courage.

John, the gospel writer, summed up his reason for writing as follows:

Jesus did many other miraculous signs ... But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name.
