Worshipping Through The Pain

The Lord gave, and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord. (Job 1:21b, ESV)

Everyone gets wounded. Sometimes the wounds are physical — an illness, an injury, a chronic condition. Other times they're emotional or relational — the betrayal of a friend, the grief of loss, the ache of loneliness. And sometimes the wounds cut deepest at the spiritual level — when doubts creep in, prayers seem unanswered, and God feels distant.

If you're not experiencing pain right now, chances are you've just come through it — or it's right around the corner. That's life in a broken world. But there's one response that brings both healing and hope when life hurts: worship.

It may feel counterintuitive. Pain often tempts us to withdraw from God. But worship is the way through the hurt, not around it. Worship reorients our hearts to the truth of who God is — our refuge, our strength, our Redeemer.

One of the best examples of worshipping through pain is Job. In a single day, he lost his wealth, his health, and even his children. Yet the Bible tells us, "He fell to the ground and worshiped" (Job 1:20). His story teaches us how to respond when suffering comes.

Grieve — Tell God how you feel.

Worship doesn't require pretending. Job tore his robe, shaved his head, and wept. His raw grief didn't disqualify him from worship—it became part of it. God welcomes your honesty. Don't bottle up your pain; pour it out before the One who already knows. In God's presence, tears become prayers, and lament becomes praise in progress.

Praise God — not for the pain, but in the midst of it.

Pain can shrink your world until all you see is the hurt. Worship lifts your eyes. It reminds you that, even in sorrow, God is still worthy. As Job declared, "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." That's not denial—that's defiant hope. You may not feel like praising, but praise anyway. You'll find strength there.

Ask God for wisdom and strength.

Pain clouds our thinking. We don't know what to do next. That's when we need divine guidance. Job said, "True wisdom and real power belong to God" (Job 12:13 MSG). When you ask, He will supply what you need to keep going—even if He doesn't answer all your questions right away.

Don't isolate — gather with others.

Wounded people often withdraw. But healing happens in community. The body of Christ was made for times like these. Whether it's a Sunday gathering, a prayer partner, or a small group, lean on others. You weren't meant to carry sorrow alone. Let someone walk with you.

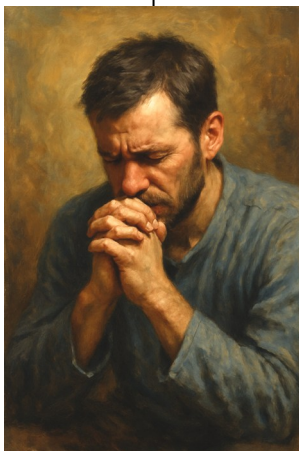

Persevere — keep trusting.

Worship is more than a song. Sometimes it's simply not giving up. Job's wife urged him to curse God and die, but Job replied, "Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him" (Job 13:15). That's worship at its highest—faith that refuses to let go.

Whatever you're facing, remember: your Redeemer lives. One day, He will make all things new. So don't let your pain rob you of worship. Let it lead you to the One who heals.

Blessings,

Pastor Jim

Beginning Band Class will start on Tuesday September 2 at Home Moravian Church. Sponsored jointly with Salem Congregation, Beginning Band Class will once again be offered under the leadership of Robah Ogburn and Connie Merritt. Each Tuesday night, the class will meet at 6:30 p.m. for all ages 6th grade and up (we have had students starting in their 80's). If you do not know what instrument you want to learn, the leaders will help you make that decision on the first night. Salem Congregation Chorale Band will meet at 7:30 p.m. each Tuesday and is open to all interested players. This group will use both green and blue Moravian Chorale books and perhaps some band arrangements. This group is targeted for all players that have at least completed Beginning Band, as well as those that have played for many years.

Both the Beginning Band Class and the Salem Congregation Chorale Band will meet in the Rehearsal Room on the lower level of the Rhondthaler building. Please contact Connie (kapwing@triad.rr.com) or Robah (RobahOgburn@Yahoo.com) if you have questions or need additional information. You do not have to be a Salem Congregation member. You Are Invited!

Sunday, September 21st will be a very special day here at Friedberg. We're celebrating Homecoming / Back to Church Sunday and we would love to have you join us!

Sunday School - 9:45 AM

We have a Sunday School ministry for all ages, from nursery through adult. There are age-appropriate classes for children and youth all the way up through high school and college. And adults have seven different classes from which to choose.

Worship - 11:00 AM

Our services are traditional in style, but far from stuffy. You'll experience a warm welcome from friendly people who love the Lord and want to worship Him! There will be joyful singing by our adult choir and biblical teaching from our pastors that is real and relevant to your life today.

Friedberg is very child friendly. There are infant and toddler nurseries for the little ones. Children ages 4 - 5th begin worship in the sanctuary with their parents. They have the option to stay in the sanctuary or they can attend Children's Church (for kids 2nd grade and under) or Kids Worship (for 3rd-5th graders). These are age appropriate worship experiences that are designed to be energetic and fun.

Lunch - 12:15 PM

Following worship everyone is invited to stay for a covered dish lunch in our Family Life Center. The members of Friedberg are being asked to prepare enough food for themselves and our guests. The food will be great and so will the fellowship. Lunch will be a great time to meet our pastors and other staff members and to mingle with the members of Friedberg ... you just might meet a few new friends.

September 21st is going to be a great day at Friedberg! We hope to see you here!

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Every Sunday from 9:45-10:45am in various classrooms on the lower level

We invite you to join us for Sunday School each Sunday morning as children split up into more age specific small groups and dive deeper into our monthly verse and themes. They have loving Sunday School teachers with awesome plans ready to go for them to help each child learn more about what plans God has for each of their lives. Our Little Explorers (2 and 3 year olds) are continuing to learn from the Little Bible Heroes and will be learning about Creation and Noah this month. The rest of our classes will begin a new curriculum with GROW! This month our focus will be on "In Season" and how we will delight in God's Ways. We will learn how God's words are always in season by diving deeper into Psalms 1. It's a great time to gather together in a smaller group on Sunday mornings!

CHILDREN'S WORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Sunday, September 7, 14, 21, 28 during the 11:00am service

There are two worship opportunities for children during our 11:00am service. If there is a Children's Chat, all children will leave after that. If not, there will be a specific time where children will leave. Children age 4-2nd grade will go to Children's Church and children grades 3-5 will go to Kid's Worship.

September's verse to focus on will be:

"Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door. Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away." Mark 13:28-31

Learning from the Fig Tree

Jesus told his friends a story about a fig tree. He said, "When you see the fig tree's branches getting soft and its leaves coming out, you know that summer is almost here!"

Just like we can tell what season is coming by looking at trees, Jesus wants us to watch for signs that He is coming back someday. But here's the most important part of what Jesus said:

"Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away."

What does this mean for us? It means that everything around us might change - the seasons change, we grow up, things break and get old - but God's promises to us will NEVER change. His love for us will never go away. The things He teaches us in the Bible will always be true.

So when you see trees changing with the seasons, remember Jesus' story! And remember that no matter what changes in your life, God's love for you stays exactly the same - forever and always.

Prayer: Dear God, thank you that your love never changes. Help us to remember your promises when everything else seems different. Amen.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE CHILDREN OF FRIEDBERG...

If you question that, remember our message from the Children's Lovefeast on Sunday, August, 17! Our faith is growing everyday...how about yours?

We will spend a lot of time exploring the dwelling places of God, what heaven is like, and determining if it is a real place. We will also learn that Jesus is the only way to heaven and how we can live like citizens of heaven on earth.

Honduras Baby Layettes Project

The youth group will begin collecting donations for the Honduras Baby Layettes project, which aims to provide essential clothing and care items for mothers and their newborns. Each layette will include a onesie, an additional baby outfit, a lightweight receiving blanket, cloth diapers, socks, a cap, and a rattle or toy. These baby layettes will be distributed to teams traveling to Honduras in January 2026.

If you or your Sunday school class would like to contribute to the Honduras Baby Layette Project, please contact Karen Hill for more information. By donating to this project, you will help provide comfort and security to newborns during their most vulnerable days, ease the burden on families facing financial challenges, and strengthen community support.

Together, we can make a difference in the world.

Starting on August 3, I traveled to Cuba on behalf of the Armando Rusindo Mission Foundation. My purpose was to assist with the summer camps, discuss community needs, visit the medical center, and purchase items for the ARMF dinner fundraiser. On August 16, the youth were invited to help serve at the ARMF dinner fundraiser. This provided a valuable opportunity for them to showcase what they learned in youth, give back to the community, learn about the foundation's work, and develop important social skills.

1. Blessed are they whose transgressions are forgiven, whose sins are covered. Pray for disaster relief workers and Moravian Disaster Response.
2. You see at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Pray for Michael and Brenda Brent in Croatia.
3. So also grace might reign through righteousness to bring eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. Pray for Joey Yokeley with Fellowship of Christian Athletes.
4. For what the law was powerless to do in that it was weakened by the sinful nature, God did by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful man to be a sin offering. Pray for Charlie and Vicki Brent in Texas.
5. Neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Pray for Anna Faircloth with YoungLife.
6. I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion. Pray for short term mission teams.
7. Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved. Pray for Safiatu Braima and Sierra Leone.
8. Oh the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! Pray for seminarians and candidates for ordination.
9. I urge you, in view of Gods mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleased to God-this is your spiritual act of worship. Pray for the Moravians in Peru.
10. Love must be sincere. Hate what is evil. Cling to what is good. Pray for the Clinica Evangelica Morava in Ahaus.
11. As surely as I live, says the Lord, every knee will bow before me; every tongue will confess to God. Pray for Moravians in Cuba and the Armando Rusindo Foundation.
12. May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit. Pray for PEC members, bishops, and other church leaders.
13. No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him. Pray for Moravians in Honduras and Nicaragua.
14. For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building. Pray for the Raipur Foster Child Project.
15. Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it. Pray for the Michael and Ceci in Kenya and Ray of Hope Orphanage.
16. And now these three remain; faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love. Pray for Phil and Eunice Raiford in Mexico.
17. Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith; be men of courage; be strong. Do everything in love. Pray for The Dwelling and homeless shelters.
18. Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. Pray for Adopt-a-Village in Tanzania.
19. Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! Pray for Moravians in Brazil and Bolivia.
20. My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Pray for Vani and Shanti Pradhan in Nepal.
21. There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, male nor female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. Pray for the Unity Women's Desk.
22. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers. Pray for the Hoffmans in HIV/AIDS ministry.
23. But because of his great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ even when we were dead in transgressions-it is by grace you have been saved. Pray for Michael and Naomi Woo with OMF International.
24. Be imitators of God, therefore, as dearly loved children. Pray for Kevin and Charity in the Middle East.
25. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Pray for Dusty and Christin Harrison with Greek Intervarsity.
26. Serve wholeheartedly, as if you were serving the Lord, not men, because you know that the Lord will reward everyone for whatever good he does. Pray for Brian and Heather Marx with Mission Aviation Fellowship.
27. But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. Pray for Alan and DeeDee Iobst in France.
28. Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice! Pray for Annie B Missions and Star Mountain.
29. I can do everything through him who gives me strength. Pray for the Board of World Mission.
30. Since then you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Pray for Estamos Unidos Moravian Ministry.
