Fourth Sunday after Pentecost
Father's Day

Watchword for the Week – Jesus said, “Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for My sake will find it.” Matthew 10:39

Welcome to our service of worship for this fourth Sunday after Pentecost - the season of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit was sent by the Risen Lord, Jesus Christ, to supply the church with everything needed to serve Him faithfully until the day of His return. May more and more people everywhere hear and respond to the Good News - that Jesus is the Way; the Truth; the Life; the only source of salvation.

Today is also Father's Day – a special time to give thanks for fathers and all the men of faith who have touched our lives with their love. As we worship today, let us pray for a fresh outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us all – but most especially upon the men in our congregation. May God empower them with renewed energy and vision to rise up as fathers and father-figures and make a positive impact for Christ in their homes, church, community, nation and world.

If you are visiting with us today, we are especially glad you're here! Please take a moment to add your information to the blue Friendship Register as it is passed down the pew. We consider you an honored guest and hope you will return and worship with us often in the weeks to come. If you are looking for a church home – a place where you can share Christian fellowship, learn, serve and grow as a follower of Jesus – we would love to talk to you about joining the Friedberg church family.
